

Instructions for general online attendance

Dear participants of the 14th Congress of Nutrition, you have registered to participate on the congress on-line and here are some information for your attendance.

On Sunday afternoon you will receive an e-mail with 6 links in total – one link for each Congress Room for each of 3 days.

You can join each session starting on Monday 8th November, 8:30 by clicking on the link in the email to join the meeting.

If you are joining the program before the host has started the meeting, please wait in the lobby until the host starts the program.

You can access the sessions that are on the program in Room A Donji Dorcol or Room B Shonda by choosing the link of the Room and you can leave the program in one room and switch to the program in the other room by choosing different links.

During the sessions you will be muted. Following the presentations, there will be a short Q&A session when you could ask the questions using the Chat option. The Session Chair will select and ask the lecturer some of the questions posted in the Chat.

Each Session will have a Host, a Session Chair, presenter(s) and participants.

Host: will be the the person that facilitates the use of the technology.

Session Chair will coordinate the Session, announce the presenters, communicate with the Host, and manage Q&A.
